'Come Away With Me'

Sleep still fails me...lying in bed yet another revelation or piece to the plan. The Angelic music of Norah Jones' 'Come Away With Me' IS the entire essence of this...it IS the Story of Ross Harvey...leading a group of the most powerful people in the present...demonstrating without a shadow of a doubt that this could not be fictitious...and then through a collective SO POWERFUL IT MUST BE TRUE...rounding up all mankind who elects to join...and taking them to higher moral and ethical ground... a united global action campaign

Again I am cold, covered with goose bumps...yet warm.

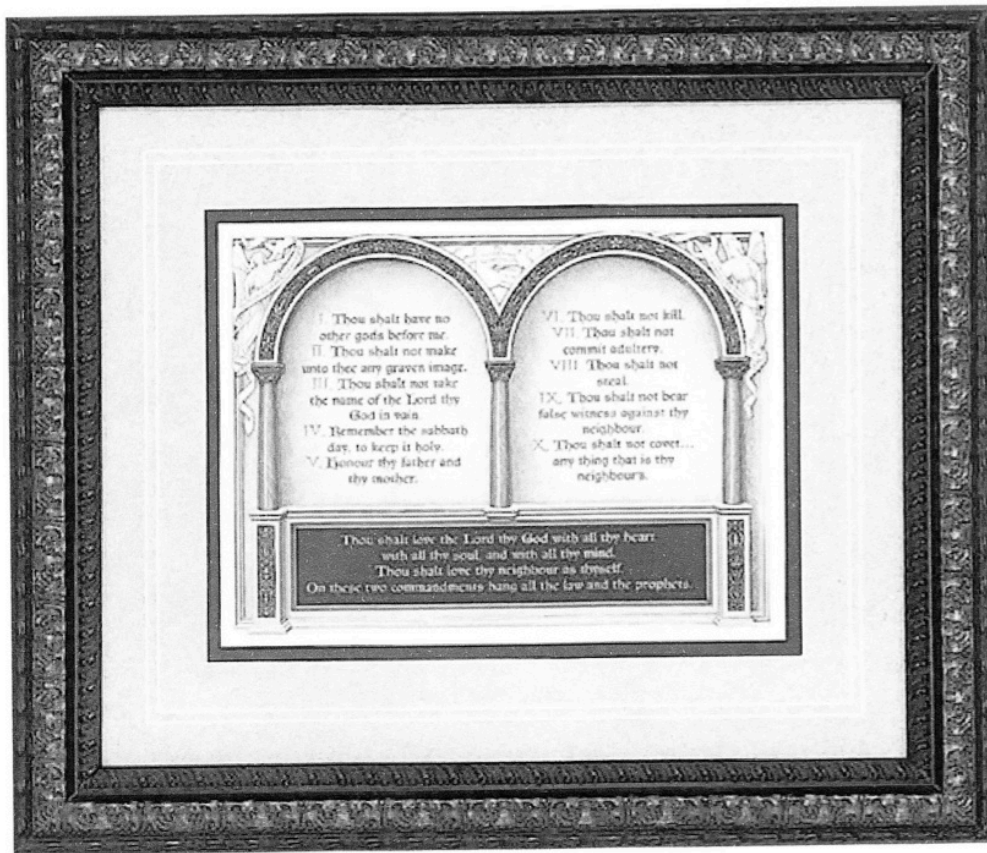

Life is funny...I love life.

Good night.

I have just finished a bout of uncontrollable sobbing...for I believe I have just found out the reason...WHY...my life has had so many ups and downs...and now I sit atop this mountain... with such infinite wisdom and clarity. My most burning need in directing the course of my life is to do it my way...to go in a direction I believe...irrespective of what others may try to do or say to guide my instincts. This path has led me through much hardship...but every time I have come out of it...obviously a better person for it. The very large majority of hardships I have experienced in my life were not the product of actions against me as much as decisions I made in reaction to these...opting to take what I believed to be the moral high ground, rather than cave in to my immediate needs. This is true of all major crises and losses in my life. These were all 'tests'...and I am certain I have not experienced the last of these. There remains one which is ongoing. They are rooted in the Ten Commandments...which funnily enough I found a copy of just yesterday, while sorting through the collective memories of my past...the pictures, the letters, the powerful feelings associated with both.

The TRUE irony in all of this is that I am not, to any degree, religious. I do not discount that there is a GOD...a supreme being. A Man...A Woman...A Child...perhaps A Family. But I am not religious...and I am not famous...SO WHY ME????? And why the internet? The power of this medium was just demonstrated to me yet again...I went downstairs to find that copy of the Commandments, but gave up after 5 minutes...I then 'Googled' for them and had a beautiful...easily attached replica in less-than-one-minute!! Join me...come away with me...HUMANity!!

Life is funny. I love life.

Good night.

In this latest...and nonetheless great moment of insight, I am lying in bed, planning HOW to introduce...and to WHOM...this mission of mine which is not my mission. Several names come to mind...and a plan...so ingenious that while not wanting to dismiss my talents, I could not have engineered it. These words and structure are flowing through my mind, my arms and fingers and onto the screen in SUCH order...a rapidity that again...I must be a vehicle...that someone else is driving. Smokey? Gayle? Uncle Doug? Railbird? Tammy Shaiks/Joycie? Jill's Sister? GOD? All those who died too soon...and left all too many grieving. In this moment of clarity I KNOW this. I also know of one name which I must add to this list...Billy Graham. Along with Steve Largent...a man who, through the eyes of a very good new friend, Tommy Kane, I have learned is MORE THAN A MAN...he is I Missionary of the lord. Gary Carter...again through research done on a completely different, what was believed to be unrelated matter...I have learned of his noble mission. Tom Lehman...and idol of mine since his rise to fame was it 15 years ago? Another man of GOD who at every turn has demonstrated his goodness of character...just yesterday...was brought into my 'radar'...after really not being in my mind (as he did not have a great PGA Tour year) through 2003. Catriona LeMay Doan. Beautiful and a smile the likes of which I can only compare to Julia Roberts' and Nicole Kidmans' for its ability to light up a room.

Now...that is the WHOM...onto the HOW. This MISSION will be kept in as much confidence as possible...so that I may petition a wide base of contacts so as to elicit the support and personal email addresses of my TEAM. I will not go through IMG to reach the sports stars as I do not want any thought of PROFIT to come into this...so Jerry Maguire's MISSION STATEMENT...and Tom Cruise, Renee Zellweiger and Cuba Gooding Jr.'s roles, play a part. As have The Boss, Tom Hanks and Denzel in Philadelphia...and Tim Robbins and Morgan in Shawshank Redemption and Dustin Hoffman/Tom Cruise in Rainman...four of my favorite movies...which I have mentioned in the past several days...again brought into my radar for this reason.

ALL those who connect with people at the highest emotional level. People from all religions...Ebony and Ivory and every hue of the rainbow in between...united...for a common and unquestionable cause...to redirect the ship...the Ark if you may...and to take it to higher ground...morally...reestablishing values which a society can thrive under...rather than survive. Greed...free sex...self esteem...LOVE...for mankind. Contribution...of oneself and one's talents...towards the good of the whole...not for what we stand to get from them...but for what we stand to get for ourselves but committing this ACT.

With this noted, I can now lay down to rest once again.

Life is funny...I love life.

Good night once more.

Please assist me in carrying out my mission.

To do EVERYTHING in the interest of healing and educating the world...globally, INclusively.

For NO monetary or personal gain.

To make a tremendous and long lasting positive difference in the lives of people at every corner of the globe.

To establish this, using the global communication system put in place by the great computer, software and systems minds (the www) and NONE of the powers of governments, interest groups and bureaucracy which proliferate wrong messages and incite groups to hatred and large scale havoc.

Send this to EVERYONE you know. Live your life by THE TEN COMMANDMENTS. Let's make this world a better place for ALL.

If you live a life of plenty...or even moderate wealth...your contribution to the welfare of others will be gratefully accepted. This may be accomplished in one of two ways. By visiting the website www.g3.org and making an online contribution or by sending a cheque to:

G3 Organization

5751 Sherbrooke Street West,
Montreal, Quebec Canada H4A 3P4

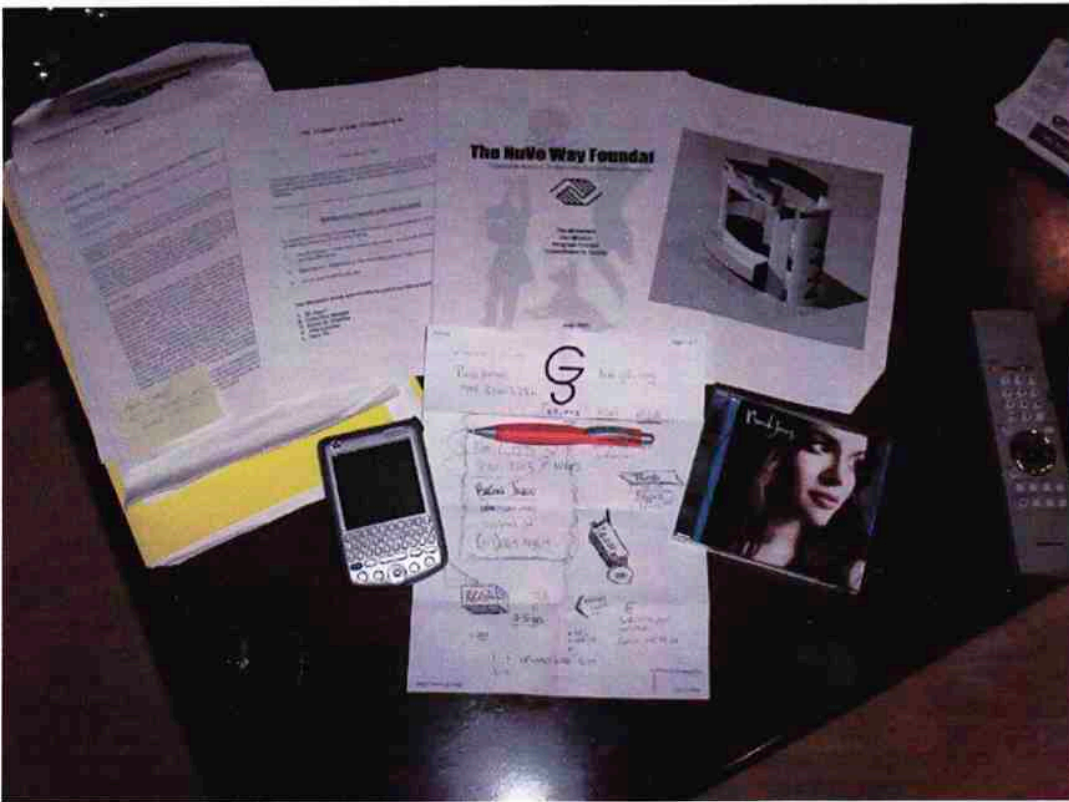

Your donation, however small or large is gratefully accepted by those less fortunate. 100% of this contribution will be channeled toward helping this cause. Bill Gates, Norah Jones and myself will see to this!

Thank you...and GOD bless.

Life is funny. I love life.
