

Hi Nat!

I was thinking more about getting my Mum, my sister Jo-Anne or my great friend Jais to finance our condo. I would ask them to pay for the entire condo up front and then to give us an interest-free loan arrangement for 20 years.

What this would mean is that we could afford a condo of $500k for $2000/mth - which will easily be within our grasp. If the condo I used to live in at 6980 Cote St Luc Road is available - it will likely be in this vicinity.

I really don't want to wait until July - which is the end of my lease - to move in together if we can find a way to do this. I really think it is best that we wait until everything is ironed out with the divorce and custody - but I know this is coming and it will all be settled in your favour!

The other thing I know and which I can count on - Nat - is that we will always be okay. I don't like to fight. I don't like confrontation. But I do have a very strong personality. I know you know this - and see how well you already know me!

The other day I said 'opposites attract' when we were lying in bed and you were watching the Game of Thrones parallel. You like different TV and movies to me - and I see no problem with that - actually I like it! It means we will always have new things to talk about! Like the new Indian movie you are planning on going to see! I will love to watch erotic TV and movies with you - but not until I can perform completely with you - not holding back in any way. The other day when you got on top of me and I felt my cock on your pussy - it was almost as if we were fucking! This was what I was thinking about when I woke up and was hard - and masturbated - I wasn't thinking about Norah - I was thinking about you!

And you are also much more civic-minded than me. We both want to change the world but in different ways. I want to use my talents to help you to be the best you can be in every way. But I need you to also understand my limitations in this respect. I expend a lot of mental energy in everything I do - and this is even more draining than physical energy. I need to replenish and need my time alone to do so. It will pay HUGE dividends down the road when everything I am doing comes to fruition! It will mean I don't have to work anymore and that we will be able to enjoy all the fruits of my labour - forever (eternity!).

In my wildest dreams I never imagined that I would have what I have with you and Chris - in this life! I can't begin to tell you how thankful and grateful I am!

All my love,
