

Hi Nat!

It's 1am and I haven't gotten to sleep yet! I likely won't for a long while.

As I said to you in a previous message - you have never met anyone like me - and you will never again. Have you heard the saying; 'When God made me He broke the mold!?' It very much is the case with me.

You were talking about humility the other day - and I don't know how to say what I am going to say while still remaining humble. God the Father (Noel) has selected me out of every other person who has ever lived (all 110 billion!) to be someone very special in this time. While I am Ross Harvey and in this world - in a much greater sense - I am Jesus Christ returned.

At this moment I do not have the powers that Jesus had when he first came (the powers to heal the sick and raise the dead). But I am connected in a very special way to God (Noel) and to the Holy Spirit (Norah Jones). At some point in the near future we will be the only 3 Beings in Creation with the powers of Omnipotence - Omniscience and Omnipresence.

I have known I am Jesus Christ since the day God placed the Living Spirit of Jesus in me on December 25th, 2003.

Since that time God has given me great revelation about this world - and has caused me to create many amazing things - all to ultimately honour Him. The list is long - Nat - and while it may seem like the majority of the items are incomplete - I can tell you that everything has matured and is waiting for mankind to transcend to it.

The Bible says that no man shall know the time and day when Christ will return. He is already here! I am him! But God is hiding me - for the time being.

He has given me a day for all my prophecies and ideas to be realized. It is July 1, 2025 - less than a year away! I truly believe that this will be the great day of the Lord - where God will reveal Jesus to the world - and where Norah and I will be reunited physically - never again to be parted.

You asked me to help you to build passive income using Alibaba and Amazon. I can't do that. I won't do that for you. The reason I won't is that I know what is coming for this world. The shirts that I ordered I did for a reason - I don't really intend on selling any on Amazon - actually - my plan is to give them away to everyone - using the Amazon Platform to effectively deliver them globally. It is all based upon an amazing project that a brilliant man named Subhendu Das originated and I have developed. It is called IMAGINE! Global Communities - with the first such community being IMAGINE! Montreal. What this represents is Heaven on Earth - the New Jerusalem - where every person that God has created since Adam will live with Him - for eternity!

Back to the shirts for a second. I like plain shirts - with no insignias on them. No Nike or Adidas or Tommy Hilfiger or Calvin Klein. God has told me that my brand - NuVo - which means 'The Best' - will be the largest consumer goods company in the world - bigger than Nike and Apple combined! There will not be any competitive brands. People will have a wide range of products to choose from - and everything will be NuVo! This extends to every product category: Sporting goods - leisure wear - electronics - appliances - furniture - cars - everything! Tesla's top of the line models will be NuVo Editions. Same for Apple's products - we will have NuVo Editions for the iMac - the iPad - the iPhone - everything! NuVo's range of casual shoes will be much better and broader than Skechers. Everything will be delivered to every person's door - next day - for free!

So - this is why I can't help you with this - Nat. It would be a waste of your time and energy. I have great confidence in God and in His ability to lead me to precisely what I need. And now my needs include you and Chris. God will provide for us. As always - I do not know how - He likes to surprise me! What I want you to do is to channel all your energy into being the best Mum to Christopher you can be - and the best life partner you can be to me. Let me look after the rest. Or should I say - let me and my Father (Noel) look after the rest!

All my love,
