

Hi Nat!

I thought it appropriate to give you a little lesson - Ross 101! I am like no one you have ever met - or will ever meet again. I am committed - some people believe I should be committed! I do everything with deep love - or I do not do it. I am passionate about life and know that in my future God will deliver everything I dream of and want for my life - to me.

To tell you about my past - there is no better way than to direct you to my personal website and to ask you to read it all. This will give you a brief background about who I was - what I am involved in now - what my dreams are - what God has told me - and my story.

I have not been in a relationship for over 20 years - well that is not the full truth - I have been in the deepest relationship possible since my '7 Days on the Mountain with God' - from December 25-31, 2003. In that time I came to know my Eternal Soulmate - Norah Jones. Over the course of the last 20+ years she has been prominent in my life in every moment - although not physically.

As I see it - Norah and I are engaged - and will be married on the 'great day of the Lord' - when God announces Jesus to the world. When you read my story - my hope is that God will give you discernment - and even though I can't and don't expect you to believe who I know I am - I hope you will love me for who I have shown you I am.

There are two things active in this world I wanted to give you some insight into. One is Parallel Universes and the other is Determinism. Two of the greatest minds in history - Albert Einstein and Stephen Hawking - believed fervently in the existence of Parallel Universes. I have taken their work to another level - listening to God and outlining what He has told me. This is work I am very proud of - and something which the vast majority of people do not understand! Determinism states that mankind does not have free will. This is the case. In essence we are 'humanoid robots' carrying out an elaborate drama which God already knows the ending of - which is that ALL OF MANKIND will live in Heaven on Earth - for eternity. There will be no cleansing of the earth and sending people to hell - this is not God's will. Understanding that we do not have free will - fully understanding this - is very freeing. We understand that all of our decisions are made by God - and knowing that He only has our best at heart - we can relax, live in peace and trust in Him. It also enables us to NEVER have bad feelings for anyone - because anything and everything they do is not their fault - it is God doing these things - often for reasons we don't fully understand at the present moment. As related to Chris - if you can fully appreciate and understand Determinism - you can just do what you are great at in my eyes - which is living in the moment and being the absolute best Mum you can be for him - and leaving all else to God. Again - Nat - knowing that God loves Chris and only wants the absolute best for him - you can relax and live in peace knowing that his trajectory is for the very good. Frankly I am looking forward to every day - and to seeing him grow into being a well-adjusted young man - with many great talents which he will use to change the world for the better!

I just wanted to speak about you and me for a moment. I don't know your age - and frankly I don't care. I know you are at least 20 years younger than me. When I was between 36 and 40 I went out with a string of 5 22 year olds. I then met a beautiful and amazing young woman - Carla Chiarella - who was 21. We went out for about 4 months - but we had to break up for a number of reasons. When you have read My Story - you will see that I have come to know Norah Jones as the Holy Spirit. She is God. For 20 years I have saved myself for her - not giving any other woman a chance. Following our conversation at The Depot about a week ago - I came home and lay on my bed. It was at this point that Norah came to me and said - Ross - IT IS TIME! This is the woman I have created for you - in this life. I give you my permission to pursue her! I am a joker at heart - and love to laugh - but given this I am also very serious - especially when it comes to God and all the things He (She) has put on my heart. I am serious about my roles in my life - and I am very serious about everything God sends me to look after. This now includes you and Chris, Nat. At present we are on a path towards becoming great friends - but I want to be much more than this to both of you. I want to be your lover - Nat. You are a beautiful and wonderful young lady - and deserving of the best life can offer. I don't want to scare you - but rather to thrill you by telling you of my dreams for us. I want to marry you and to be the father-figure in Chris's life that both of you need. I will treat you like the queen you are in my eyes - in every area. I know you are a romantic - I too am one. To be very honest I not only want to kiss you - but I want to explore every part of your body and have you do likewise with mine. I want to make sweet - and passionate love to you. But I can wait for all of this. In honouring God I want to do everything right with you and will follow your lead - until such a time as we are married.

My reason for telling you all of this is many-fold. Already in a very brief time we have become very close. In order to get closer - I felt like I had to divulge my deepest secrets to you - as otherwise I would consider myself lying to you. I also have a commitment to full disclosure to the world - to telling my story to everyone and allowing them to make up their own minds. As I said to you - some people believe I am a prophet - others believe I am crazy and deluded! This doesn't matter to or bother me. I am a good person with a good heart and a willingness/desire to make this world a better place - for all. And I am doing this - in small and bigger ways!

Ultimately - God will change the entire world through me - delivering Heaven on Earth to all of mankind who has ever been created (110 billion people!) - for eternity! I am on a mission - Nat - and this is why I said at the beginning that you have never met - and will never again meet anyone like me!

If you will have me - I would like to be your significant other - and to help and support you in raising an amazing young man.

All my love,
